

LONDON'S HIDDEN COLLECTIONS

Apsley House
Barts & St Thomas Hospital
Coram Foundation
Guildhall

Four WEDNESDAYS 12 February, 19 February, 8 April* & 15 April* NEW DATES

While literally millions visit the art collections of London's major galleries, visitors to its smaller collections are modest in number. We shall view these marvellous collections in relative peace and quiet. During this short course we study masterpieces from Carracci to Velasquez to Jan Steen in Apsley House; the inspiring adornment of hospitals at Guys and St Thomas'; the role of major art by Hogarth, Romney and Gainsborough in encouraging charitable donors to the Coram Foundation; and the way that the collection of the City of London at the Guildhall reflects both its history and its priorities.

Wednesday 12 February Guys and St Thomas' entrance, nearest tube London Bridge

Wednesday 19 February Coram Foundation entrance, nearest tube Russell Square

Wednesday 8 April* Apsley House entrance, nearest tube, Hyde Park Corner

Wednesday 15 April* Guildhall entrance, nearest tube St Pauls, Bank or Moorgate

Please meet at 11:00 am at the venue noted. An optional independent lunch will be taken nearby. £80 per person per day, including entrance fee.
